

Wentworth House Hotel

Out & About

Wentworth House is situated in the small village of Aldbrough just east of Hull. The hotel is within easy reach of the M62 motorway and other major roads as well as railways and the Humber Bridge.

We are ideally situated for guests touring the beautiful countryside of East Yorkshire and the coast, with all its seaside towns and harbours.

Newbridge Lake

For the angler there is sea, lake and river fishing. There are also four golf courses just a short drive away.

Also within easy reach are many interesting historic towns such as Hedon and Beverley; elegant stately houses, such as Burton Constable and Burton Agnes; the vibrant city of Hull and the Coastal resorts of Bridlington, Filey and Scarborough..

For the shopper, the Freeport Outlet in the town of Hornsea has a vast range of clothing and gift shops.

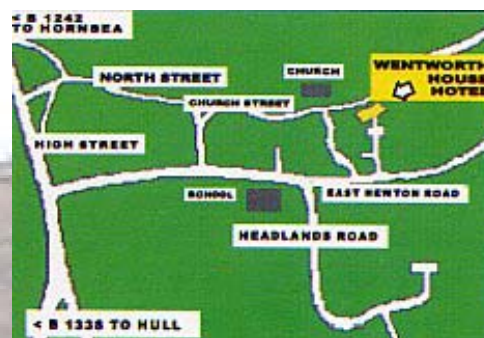

We arrange theme breaks such as: Art, Angling, Cycling, Ornithology and Golf, please see our web-site, or ring for further details.

Whilst staying in the area you should take advantage of the dramatic countryside walks, discovering nature. Visit Hornsea Mere and discover the wildlife at Yorkshire's largest fresh-water lake.

Wentworth House is a family run hotel set in spacious gardens, offering you delightful accommodation in a friendly and homely atmosphere.

It is ideally suited to those who are working and require first class facilities in a peaceful environment, also those seeking a totally relaxing and stress free break. The bar area has a fine selection of wines, spirits and popular beers and is the perfect way to relax after a busy day and a good meal.

There is a separate games room, incorporating of a full size snooker table.

We also have a sauna room with shower, facility.

The Wentworth's attractive dining room caters for 16 people comfortably. The menu has the emphasis on good quality home cooking.

The conference facility can comfortably accommodate up to 32 people (theatre) and is equipped with audio visual presentation facilities.

Originally built in the 15th Century the house has seen many changes over the past four hundred years. Although little visible remnants of the early building exist, the house still boasts some interesting architectural features.

In the summer evenings relax in the gardens and enjoy an outdoor barbeque (although the free range chickens are not on the menu!)

Walk down to the beach (fifteen minutes) and experience the exhilarating East Yorkshire air.

Join the locals at one of the villages three Public Houses.

Or go out for a wild night in Hull, visit the Hull truck theatre company, or indulge in one of the many activities a major British city can offer.

Most of all— relax and enjoy
